Jeff was a devoted family man who loved cuddling his four Border Collies, traveling to Outer Banks, NC, reading science fiction and volumes of books on astronomy and the space program, watching nature and Sci Fi shows and movies, and following Premier League Football (Go Liverpool!). He enjoyed taking online astronomy classes through Stanford and amateur Hamm Radio. In 2015, Jeff played a critical role in creating and supporting the technology and administration for the family's medical business, Weller Health Transitions, a healthcare company serving the Dayton community nursing homes and assisted living facilities.
